STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER
RE CONTINUANCE OF SETTLEMENT
CONFERENCE

17 STIPULATION

18 This matter is currently scheduled for a further settlement conference on October 13, 2010
19 at 2:00 p.m. Pursuant to this stipulation, the parties respectfully request that the conference be 20 continued to a mutually convenient date in early to mid December in order to permit the parties
21 sufficient time to fully investigate any lien that Medicare may have for the medical treatment
22 plaintiff has obtained post-incident. Plaintiff's counsel has been in contact with Medicare, but was
23 only recently advised that Medicare could not provide the requested information for another 30 –
24 45 days (which would essentially be the end of November 2010). The parties had hoped to have 25 this information in advance of the settlement conference.

The trial of this matter is scheduled to commence on April 18, 2010 and, as such, a brief continuance will not have a negative impact on any potential for a resolution short of trial.

Defendants are available for a further settlement conference on any date in December with the exception of the following: 9th, 10th, 17th, or the 22nd through 31st. Plaintiff's counsel is currently set for trial before Magistrate Trumbull between December 6th and 17th, but is unsure whether the trial will remain on calendar given her pending retirement. To the extent these dates do not work for the Court, the parties are pleased to coordinate with the Court on another date.
